

SEI-BU-KAN KOKUSAI KYOKAI

Code of Conduct for Instructors

- Be aware of, and abide by, the safeguarding policy
- Be a positive role-model for students: lead by example
- Show respect for all those using the dojo
- Never swear in the dojo
- Never wear jewellery in the dojo
- Always wear your gi and badge correctly
- Tell parents/carers if you have a concern about their child. This includes information about injuries sustained during training
- Enforce rules with equality and fairness
- Inform the chief instructor if you believe that there is any impediment to you teaching (health or personal)
- Maintain skills through continuing learning and development
- Attend any training relevant to your role
- Ensure that children have the correct protective equipment for the session
- Challenge any instances of bullying or other poor behaviour in the dojo